dred and Odd Dollars in Postands Gone--Light "Swag" at her Places-No Arrests So Far.

EDERICESITER, VA., October 18.—This city risited last night by the largest and boldest wries that have ever occurred here, and the ms are considerably stirred up. There ever places burglarized, the post-office dining the heaviest loss, where the thieves seded in getting about $600 in money, a ber of registured letters and postal notes, a the box containing $35 and the private ra. of Postmaster Fester.

other places entered were the express W. e. Embroy's office, R. N. Estes's y store, the Potomac, Fredericksburg and nont railroad depot, A. A. Botts's wood-files, and Landrum's & Morrison's spoker, Charles Grayson also has a horse, but whether it was done by the same is unknown. At the post-office the sentered from the back door by cutting k away and prizing the door-bar up. The soffice was office was cutered from the front door, so office was cutered away or were unable a the safe, as nothing has as yet been d.

As yet no clue as to the identity of the thleves a been obtained, and the private box of Postaster Foster was found under the street bridge the corner of Ninth and a streets by Mr. John therson. All the private papers and the $50 uch was in an envelope was unmolested. The reriument has been apprised of the fact and softered a reward. The city officials are also string every step to expure the thieves and spect two strangers who were in the city yes-

HOLSTON METHODIST CONFERENCE.

dence of the Richmond Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, October 17 .- Holston Methodist rence, which met in Wytheville last Wed-before to morrow evening.

Besides the regular business of the conference,
Besides the regular business of the conference, such as bearing reports from the ministers, examining the deacons and elders, and hearing reports from the committees, there has been preaching each afternoon in the Methodist church, and each evening an interesting meeting in connection with some special branch of the work of the Church.

On Thursday evening the Church-Extension
Societ, was addressed by Rev. David Motton, B.
D., and Bishop Fittgerald. On Friday evening the annual missionary meeting was held, and interesting speeches were made by Dr. Hoss, of the Christian Advante, Dr. Atkins, and Rev.
James Kenneday, a missionary from Mexico.

James Kenneday, a missionary from Mexico.

AN APPEAL

On Friday Dr. Atkins, president of Emory and Henry College, made an appeal to the conference for the college, stating that it was in better condition than ever before, and asking that the conference take steps to raise the money to pay the old debt on the college, so that it might press on to success unhampered. Dr. Hoss, Dr. Sullins, and Bishop Pitzgeraid spoke, and after a resolution requesting the Committee on Education to take hold of the matter, the ministers by a rising vote pledged themselves to assist in every way in their power in raising the amount due.

Nearly all of the pulpits in town were filled on yesterday by the Methodist ministers.

THE SISHOP'S SERMON.

Bishop Pitzgerald preached in the morning at Bishop Pitzgerald preached in the morning at the Methodist church, from the text found in Luke rxiv, 49; "And behold I send the promise of My Father upon you; but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem till ye be endued with power from

of My Falmer apon you, but that you have from on high."

The sormon was preached with special reference to the ordination of fourteen young ministers to "deacous" enders," and was most appropriate, soleme, and tender. In the afternoon memorial services in memory of the ministers who have died in the last year who were connected with this conference were held.

In the evening the semi-centennial sermon by Dr. E. E. Wiley, who has been in the minister and connected with this conference for fifty years, from the text found in Gallations i. S: "But though we or an angel from Heaven preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached let him be accursed," was read by Dr. Floss, Dr. Wiley not being strong enough to deliver it. Fine sermons were also preached on yesterday by Dr. Hoss, Rev. Vance Price, of Chattanooga, Rev. Mr. Frazier, and others.

News Notes from Charlottesville. tion of whose critical liness was made in these columns yesterday, died at 3 o'clock this morn-ing, at the district parsonage, on Ridge street. She was a Miss Bernard and the second wife of the Rev. Green Littleton. A family of several children survive her. Mr. C. H. McKnight lies critically ill at his resi-dence, about five unles from this city. His son, Mr. A. H. McKnight, who is engaged in business in New York, was telegraphed for and arrived here vesterday afternoon.

Basic City, Va., October 17.—A large party of excursionists representing eight of the States from Maine to Maryland are enjoying the hospitaility of the Brandon to-night.

Mr. Thomas Purdy, tourist agent, and Miss M.
Ida Garber, of Philadelphia, have charge of the party. Manager Bowles, of the Brandon, enlarged his hospitality by inviting Professor Loo Wheat to furnish an hour of his charming and unique music, and Major Jed Hotchkiss a half hour of his "chalk talks" "about the Shenandoah Valley, for which the party returned hearty thanks through General Charles H. Pine, of Ansonia. Conn., one of their number.

This party of intelligent tourists go to the Natural Bridge to-morrow; then back here for the night. On Wednesday they will visit the Grottoes of the Shenandoah, and thence go to Richmond, spending that night at the Exchange.

Dr. F. H. Williams, of Harvard University, has been at the Brandon for several days, and says he will vote for Grover Cleveland. (Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

[Correspondence of Land Conveyed. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] CLINTWOOD, Va., October 15.—A deed has just been admitted to record in the clerk's office here conveying 100.000 acres of land, lying in the counties of Dickenson and Wise. This conveyance was made by John R. Read, of Philadebils, to F. A. Stratton, John A. Ashworth, and H. W. Sutherland. Mr. Stratton has been engaged in real estate speculations for some years, and, I presume, has made some money in the business. He has invested largely in this county, and at this time owns considerable realty within the limits of the county.

The Third-party ticket will hardly poil a dozen votes in Dickenson county.

At the last term of our County Court license to retail malt liquors was granted to one Andrew Johnson, and an appeal was taken to the Circuit Court by those opposed to the measure. The cause came up for hearing yesterday, and the County Court was reversed, much to the chagrin of Mr. Johnson and those friendly to the measure.

The Alliance Well Nigh Ruined.
[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
ONANCOCK, October 17.—The action of the leading officials of the Farmers' Alliance of Virginia in allying themselves with the Third party has well nigh ruined the organization on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. Hundreds of the members have refused to pay their dues on the ground that they are ubwilling to pay money to support an organization whose chief officers are engaged in an attempt to throw the electoration of the Virginia in the hands of the Republican party. Third-party men are probably harder to find here than in any other part of the State. Many of the best men in the Republican party in this section will vote for William A. Jones for Congress, because they prefer a straight Democrat to the candidate of the so-called People's party, be he never so good. The Alliance Well Nigh Ruined.

BLACKSBURG, Va., October 17.—The social season at Vurginia Agricultural and Mechanical College was opened last Friday night by the president, Dr. McByde, who entertained the class of 1893 at his home. The dining-room was tastefully decorated with paims, forms, and cut flowers. The class, numbering about twenty, received a delicous treat of the season's delicates. There are at present 160 students in attendance at the college.

Minneaota Electoral Case.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

St. Paul, Minn., October 18.—In the District Coart this morning Judge Brill announced his decision in the mandamus proceedings brought by the Democratic State Committee to compel Secretary-of-State Brown to group the Fusion electors in a different way from that he had announced. The decision was that the court had no jurisdiction in the case, and the case was disputed.
